

6516207744.txt

Dear Sirs, I subscribe to satellite radio to have some measure of control over what I listen to and I certainly think they should have the ability to offer customers what they want. It should not be dictated by any other group, especially in a supposedly free market and country like America. I urge you to reject NAB's petition 04-160 and let the market decide. Thank you, John Harmon